

Interactive Wedding/Event RSVP & Planning System

Interactive Wedding RSVP Service

Make responding to your wedding invitations quick and easy for your guests.

With My RSVP Live, your guests simply call an automated system customized for your wedding to respond to your invitation. Your guests can also leave you voicemail messages and get wedding information such as gift registry, driving directions, and more.

You have the option of collecting information from your guests, such as how many people will be attending in their party and what meal plan each person would like.

You can then review all guest responses, and information collected immediately at anytime day or night from you online account.

This service ensures you get an accurate guest count quicker and with less effort. This can save you hundreds of dollars in return postage stamps and by avoiding wasted meals reserved for guest who do not intend to attend the event.

Message Broadcast

If you have any last minute changes to your wedding plan or simply just want to share information with all or some of your guests, you can do so easily by using your online account to record and send out a message via telephone and/or email.

Wedding Planning Tools

- Budget Planner
